Hon. Mr. Justice Kelly,

Osgoode Hall,

Toronto.

My dear Mr. Justice Kelly:

I have this morning received your memorandum relating to the Rev. Dean Harris, which I will lay before the Committee on Honorary Degrees when it meets as it must do before long.

Yours sincerely,

President.

Hon. Mr. Justice Kelly,

Chatham.

Dear Mr. Justice:

At a meeting of the Committee on Honorary Degrees the name that you suggested was submitted and acted upon and the report will be presented to the Senate on Friday night of this week, when I have no doubt it will be accepted. Meantime I shall be glad if you will regard the information as confidential.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

Mr. Justice Kelly,

Osgoode Hall.

Dear Mr. Justice Kelly:

Mr. Hearst has arranged that the Finance Committee meet the Cabinet regarding the estimates on Monday, June 19th, at 11 a.m. at the Parliament Buildings. Mr. Moure is sending our regular notices, but I am forwarding this to you so that you may know at once.

Yours sincerely,

President.
